

GUJARAT TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY

Syllabus for B.Arch.

FIFTH SEMESTER (W.E.F. JULY 2014)

SUBJECT NAME: Sociology & Architecture

SUBJECT CODE: 10550010

Focus:

Examining influences and reaction of architectural forms to socio-cultural phenomena and study of various aspects of social sciences to explore how the society influences the life style, settlement pattern and habitable enclosures with a special emphasis on issues related to,

Contents:

- Sociological perspective to enhance building design
- Quantitative and qualitative research tools to anticipate designs
- Understanding of the interrelationships between people, organizations, and their built and natural surroundings
- Special emphasis on Psychology, Anthropology, Economics, Urban geography and Site Planning

Note:- The study may be undertaken with the help of appropriate cases with historical perspective and real life situations.

Reference Books:

- The Sociology of Architecture: Constructing Identities by Paul Jones (Author)
- Sociology: Exploring the Architecture of Everyday Life by David M. Newman